REPORT OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE

on

HIGHER EDUCATION

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee:

On behalf of the Higher Education Subcommittee, I am pleased to offer budget recommendations that address the priorities of the Commonwealth's institutions and advance our shared commitment to superior and affordable colleges and universities.

Mr. Chairman, over the last three years, the cost of attending our public institutions has increased by a significant 36 percent. Similar to the rest of the nation, our public colleges and universities have shouldered a major portion of general fund reductions. At the same time, 15,000 more in-state students were enrolling. In order to accommodate this growing population, the colleges backfilled with tuition increases. The result is that our public higher education institutions have become less affordable. Moreover, if this trend were to continue, our college pre-pay program would be adversely impacted and potentially curtailed. As you have said many times, Mr. Chairman, this is not a policy that we can continue.

With that in mind, the Subcommittee recommends an additional $85.8 million for student enrollment and base operating needs. In addition, we also recommend $4.9 million for new facilities coming on-line during this biennium. These two proposals will begin a four- to six-year phase-in toward funding the base operating needs for undergraduate education identified by the General Assembly's funding guidelines. By focusing our resources toward undergraduate needs, we have provided an "incentive" to colleges and universities to keep the increases to tuition and required fees reasonable. In fact, while we do not recommend a cap on tuition and fees, the Subcommittee believes strongly that tuition and fequired fee increases on in-state undergraduate students need not increase by more than four to eight percent to achieve the phase-in toward undergraduate base adequacy.

Because some tuition increases will take place this biennium, the Subcommittee recommends $9.1 million for student financial aid to ensure access and continue to meet student need at our public institutions. In addition, the Subcommittee has recommended an additional $4 million for the Tuition Assistance Grant (TAG) program focused on undergraduate Virginians attending the Commonwealth's private institutions. This will increase the annual TAG award for undergraduate students from $2,210 to $2,500 by 2006.

In addition to the above recommendations, the Subcommittee is pleased to begin meeting the funding requirements for the Medical Education campus of Northern Virginia Community College. To that end, the Subcommittee recommends $7.0 million in new general fund support over the base budget to support faculty and staff in training more students to respond to the demands of the health care professions.

The Subcommittee further recommends $3.1 million for operating support for the new Institute for Advanced Learning and Research in Danville. In addition to the operating support, the Subcommittee recommends $3.0 million in allocations from the Higher Education Equipment Trust Fund to ensure that when the facility is opened, the laboratories and workspace are fully equipped and the facility is ready to begin moving forward.

The Subcommittee has approved allocations of $110.2 million from the Higher Education Equipment Trust Fund over the biennium. This will provide the necessary instructional equipment and technology to keep our colleges and universities on the cutting edge.

The Subcommittee recommends $4.1 million for Norfolk State and Virginia State to continue our commitment under the Office of Civil Rights Accord.

The Subcommittee also recommends $2.9 million to purchase electronic database licenses for the Virtual Library of Virginia in support of enrollment growth at public and private institutions.

Finally, I would like to thank Delegate Tata and the work of his Subcommittee, which enables us to recommend a three percent faculty salary increase effective December 2005. This long-overdue raise will allow us to reward our hard-working faculty.

Mr. Chairman, in summary, let me say that the Higher Education Subcommittee appreciates your leadership and the concerted effort that every member of this committee has made to keep higher education at the forefront of funding priority. As a result, the Subcommittee is able to recommend over $130 million in additional general funds for higher education which, along with the $12 million for faculty salary increases, will bring the total new funding over the current higher education base budget to more than $140 million. As you said earlier, Mr. Chairman, this represents more than 30 percent of the discretionary spending of this Committee and sends a clear signal as to the value it places our higher education system.

Mr. Chairman, details of our Subcommittee recommendations are attached, and I hope that it will be the pleasure of the Committee to adopt them.
